New fear for young after 24 police forces arrest under-13s for sex crimes in a year

INTERNET PORN AND THE RAPE SUSPECTS AGED 10

CHILDREN as young as ten are being arrested on suspicion of rape amid fears that online pornography is twisting their view of sex and relationships.

children was revealed in disturbing figures from police forces across the country.

Twenty-four forces arrested children under 13 for suspected rape in the past year while seven detained at least one ten year old.

The figures, obtained by the Daily Mail under a Freedom of Information request, highlight growing concerns at the influence of online pornography on impressionable young minds.

Yesterday NSPCC spokesman Jon Brown said there was 'undoubtedly' a link between children carrying out sexual assaults and easy access to online pornography, which gives them a 'distorted picture of what sexual relationships should be
